Numb. 11600.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 26, to Saturday September 30, 1775.

St. James's, September 30.

THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants, of the Town and County of Poole has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Eyre Coote, Knight of the Bath, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants, of your Town and County of Poole, moſt humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our unfeigned Duty and inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Royal Authority, and with thankful Hearts to acknowledge your Majeſty's paternal Care and Vigilance for the Honour of this Nation, and the general Good of your Subjects.

Convinced as we are that nothing has been wanting on your Majeſty's Part to accelerate and promote theſe great and glorious Ends, permit us, Royal Sir, to expreſs how deeply we are affected and concerned to find, that our Fellow-Subjects in America ſtill hold out an obſtinate Reſiſtance to the Legiſlative Authority of this Kingdom; but nevertheleſs we hope, that the Time is not far off, when theſe unhappy and deluded People may be brought to a Senſe of their Duty, and Obedience to the Laws of their Parent State: And it is our moſt ardent Wiſh, that it may be the Work of your Majeſty's Juſtice to accompliſh that great Purpoſe.

Permit us, moſt gracious Sovereign, to aſſure you, that we are ſtedfaſt in our Allegiance, unalterable in our Loyalty, unanimous in the Defence of your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government; and that we will chearfully devote the utmoſt Exertion of our Abilities to cruſh all impious Attempts, either foreign or domeſtic, to ſubvert our preſent happy Conſtitution.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and Traders, of the Town of Liverpool in the County Palatine of Lancaſter, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Dartmouth, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and Traders, of the Town of Liverpoole in the County Palatine of Lancaſter, humbly beg Leave to lay before your Majeſty the Addreſs of a faithful and loyal People, to teſtify our firm and warm Attachment to your Majeſty's illuſtrious Family, the Honor of your Crown, and the Dignity of your Empire.—We eſteem it particularly our Duty, at this Time, to declare to the World our Affection to your Royal Perſon, and our Deteſtation of the open and daring Contempt ſhewn to the legal Authority and conſtitutional Powers of theſe Realms by ſome of your Majeſty's deluded and rebellious Subjects in America.

Firmly perſuaded, that every Part of your wide-extended Colonies is and ought to be ſubject to the Legiſlative Power of Great Britain, it is with the moſt affecting Concern that we reflect on Civil Diſcord, and the Effuſion of Blood, ſhed by the Hands of Britiſh Subjects againſt each other; and we do moſt ſincerely hope, for the Glory of your Reign, and the Welfare of all your People, that, when the preſent Phrenſy of your Coloniſts ſhall ſubſide, a happy Reconciliation may take Place; yet we cannot, without the utmoſt Abhorrence, look upon the Hand of Parricide lifted up againſt the Parent Country, it's moſt kind and generous Protector.—As your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects of Liverpoole have always been ready, on every the moſt trying Occaſion, to teſtify their ſincere and unalterable Allegiance to your Royal Houſe, ſo are we alſo equally ready now to exert our beſt Abilities towards the Cruſhing every Rebellion, and ſilencing all Diſaffection, that may be harboured in the Breaſts of ſeditious and ill-deſigning Men, who, under the ſpecious Maſk of Liberty, attempt to deceive and ſeduce the Minds of your faithful Subjects. We are juſtly and ſenſibly thankful for the real Enjoyment of that ineſtimable Bleſſing,

[Price Six-Pence.]

Bleſſing in it's moſt pure and rational Form, under the mild and auſpicious Government of your Majeſty.—Deeply impreſſed with theſe Sentiments of Gratitude, and the innumerable Advantages we reap from our happy Conſtitution, under your Majeſty's paternal Care, we, with all due Reſpect, preſent this our Tribute of Allegiance and Fidelity to the beſt of Princes; and that the Crown of theſe Realms may for ever flouriſh upon you, Sire, and your Royal Poſterity, is the earneſt Prayer of us your moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects,

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Traders, and Principal Inhabitants, of the City of Coventry, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Walter Waring, Eſq; and Edward Roe Yeo, Eſq; their Repreſentaves in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Coventry, September 25, 1775.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Traders, and Principal Inhabitants, of the City of Coventry.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IT is with the deepeſt Concern we have for ſome Time obſerved the Progreſs of thoſe pernicious Principles which the Patrons of Sedition have been induſtriouſly inſinuating into the Minds of your Majeſty's deluded Subjects, and which have at length produced an actual Rebellion among the unhappy Coloniſts in America; a Rebellion the moſt atrocious, becauſe altogether unprovoked; the moſt unnatural, becauſe excited and fomented by the falſe Repreſentations and Encouragement of a deſperate domeſtic Faction.

At ſuch an alarming Criſis, Silence, in the true Friends to their Country, would be utterly inexcuſeable; not to condemn the Guilty, were, in ſome Sort, to partake in their Iniquity: Whilſt therefore we deplore this Error in our Fellow-Subjects, we cannot forbear to remark, how very inattentive thoſe Perſons muſt needs be to the Welfare of the Community, who can wantonly interrupt the Public Repoſe by raiſing Tumults and Inſurrections, from no other Motive, and with no better View, than to promote the Schemes of pretended Patriotiſm, or to ſooth the Malice of diſappointed Ambition.

It might indeed, and with the greateſt Reaſon, have been expected, that the ſingular Prudence and Moderation, with which your Majeſty hath ever held the Reins of Government, would have effectually compoſed every Animoſity among your People, and ſecured a general Acquieſcence in a Conduct ſo irreproachable. It might have been hoped too, that the Miniſtry you have ſo judiciouſly made Choice of, and who, on the late trying Occaſions, have acquitted themſelves with the moſt conſummate Diſcretion, ſhould not have experienced ſo baſe and ungrateful a Return. The continued Series of Ill-Treatment, which your Majeſty, the more immediate Officers of the Crown, and the great Council of the Nation, have met with at the Hands of theſe nominal Guardians of our Rights and Liberties, we ſincerely lament; and it is our earneſt Requeſt, that this Teſtimony of our Abhorrence of ſuch ſcandalous and unjuſtifiable Behaviour may ſtand recorded to the lateſt Poſterity. Renouncing therefore, thus openly, all Fellowſhip with the Men of this Complexion, permit us, Sire, with all Humility, to approach your Throne with our moſt faithful Aſſurances of an unalienable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, and of our moſt hearty Concurrence in the Proſecution of ſuch Meaſures, as, in your Royal Wiſdom, you ſhall think proper to adopt, for the Suppreſſion of the preſent outrageous Commotions Abroad, for the Reſtoration of Peace and good Order at Home, for the Maintaining a due Regard to the Authority of the Legiſlature, and for the Support of our admirable Conſtitution, both in Church and State.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter, in Chamber aſſembled, has been preſented to His Majeſty by John Rolle Walter, Eſq; and Charles Warwick Bampfylde, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter, in Chamber aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter in Chamber aſſembled, beg Leave to pay our humble Duty to Your Majeſty, and to expreſs our Gratitude for the many Bleſſings we enjoy under Your Majeſty's Government.

Convinced, as we are, of Your Majeſty's unwearied and impartial Attention to the true Intereſts of all Your Subjects, we cannot but behold with infinite Concern, the unhappy Differences, which ſubſiſt between this Country and many of Your Majeſty's Colonies in North America; where a moſt unjuſtifiable Reſiſtance hath been made to Your Majeſty's Arms, in open Defiance of the Legiſlative Authority of Great Britain.

We had our Hopes, that this miſguided People might ere now have been reduced to a proper Senſe of that Duty and Obedience, by which alone they can be connected with this Country. In what Manner this great Object is further to be purſued, is a Queſtion, on which we preſume not to expreſs our Sentiments; but relying with Confidence on the Wiſdom, Juſtice, and Prudence of Your Majeſty's Counſels, we doubt not but Your Majeſty, zealous of the Honour of Your Crown, and deeply intereſted in the Welfare of all Your People, will act with Firmneſs, and adopt ſuch Meaſures, as may moſt effectually tend to the Eſtabliſhment of Peace, conſiſtent with the Support of that general Principle, on which the declaratory Act is founded.

Far be it from us, however, to circumſcribe the Bounty of Government; may every conſtitutional, every favourable Indulgence be extended towards them: We are anxious that Your Majeſty's Subjects ſhould be all heartily and ſincerely united in that dutiful Obedience to Your Majeſty and the Legiſlature of Great Britain, which conſtitutes the true Strength of this great Empire.

That a juſt and perfect Reconciliation may ſoon take Place is our moſt ardent Wiſh: But ſhould the unhappy Conteſt be further prolonged, and America ſtill contending for Independence, obſtinately continue to reject all reaſonable Offers of Accommodation, we conceive they will one Day feel the Loſs they have ſuſtained, when, from having been deluded by their ſeditious Leaders, they ſhall become a Prey to their Armies and their own inteſtine Animoſities, and ſhall then find by ſad Experience, that Peace and Happineſs, and Liberty, are only to be ſecured to them, by the protecting Power of this Country.

That Your Majeſty may long reign over a loyal, happy, and united People, is our moſt earneſt and conſtant Prayer.

Given under of our Common Seal, this 25th Day of September 1775.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 27th Day of September, 1775,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majeſty was pleaſed, by His Order in Council of the 23d Day of Auguſt laſt, to prohibit the Exportation out of this Kingdom into any Parts beyond the Seas, or Carrying Coaſtwiſe, any Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, for and during the Space of Three Months from the Date of the ſaid Order: And whereas His Majeſty judges it neceſſary that the Exportation of Saltpetre, or Carrying the ſame Coaſtwiſe, ſhould be likewiſe prohibited during the ſaid Time; — His Majeſty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy-Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever (except the Maſter-General, Lieutenant-General, or Principal Officers of the Ordnance, for His Majeſty's Service) do, at any Time during the Term limited by His Majeſty's aforementioned Order in Council of the 23d of Auguſt laſt, preſume to tranſport, into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coaſtwiſe, any Saltpetre, or ſhip or lade any Saltpetre on Board any Ship or Veſſel, in order to tranſporting the ſame into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the ſame Coaſtwiſe, without Leave or Permiſſion in that Behalf firſt obtained from His Majeſty, or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and ſuffering the Forfeiture and Penalty inflicted by an Act paſſed in the 29th Year of His late Majeſty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to impower His Majeſty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt-petre, and to inforce the Law for impowering His Majeſty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition; and alſo to impower His Majeſty to reſtrain the Carrying Coaſtwiſe of Saltpetre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition." And the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, the Commiſſioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Maſter-General of the Ordnance, and His Majeſty's Secretary at War, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein as to them may reſpectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

Dublin Caſtle, September 22.

This Day being the Anniverſary of Their Majeſties Coronation, in the Morning the Flag was hoiſted on Bedford Tower: At Noon the Great Guns at the Salute Battery in His Majeſty's Park the Phœnix were fired three Rounds, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garriſon, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks. In the Evening a Play was given by his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant for the Entertainment of the Ladies; and the Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonſtrations of Joy.

St. James's, September 30.

The King has been pleaſed to grant unto Lewis Diſney, of Flintham in the County of Nottingham, Eſq; and his Iſſue, His Royal Licence and Authority to take and uſe the Surname of Ffytche, and to bear the Arms of Ffytche (ſuch Arms being firſt duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office;) and alſo order that this His Majeſty's Conceſſion and Declaration be regiſtered in His Majeſty's College of Arms.

By the KING's PATENT,

HORSE-BALLS,

PRepared and Sold by W. RADLEY, Druggiſt and Chemiſt, at N° 27, near Gray's-Inn-Gate, Holborn.

Purging-Balls 2s. each Parcel, containing three Doſes, which in a ſmall Compaſs contain all the eſſential Qualities of a ſtomachic Purge; they do not cloy a Horſe's Stomach, as moſt other Purges do, but, without the leaſt Griping, ſcour a Horſe well, and make him ſtale plentifully.

The Virtues of the other are too long to enumerate here. A little Attention to the Care of Horſes, and a few Medicines ſeaſonably applied, will prevent or remove the moſt obſtinate Coughs, Greaſe, Worms, Defluxions of the Eyes, &c. which Horſes are ſubject to, and when neglected are attended with bad Conſequences; a more particular Deſcription of which will be given to any Perſon who will take the Trouble of ſending to the above Shop. Horſe Medicine Cheſts complete 5l. 5s.

TO be Sold by Auction, by Mr. William Heathfield, at Garraway's Coffee-houſe in Exchange-Alley, Cornhill, on Thurſday the 5th of October next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, the following Goods for Exportation, belonging to the Eſtate of a Gentleman deceaſed, viz.
